Changes to discount codes

In recent months changes have been made to discount codes attached to some qualifications. It has been brought to the attention of CCEA staff that a number of the codes for Occupational Studies qualifications clash with those for GCSE subject areas. As a result of this a further review and allocation of discount codes has been carried out, and the amendments below for Business and Services, Construction and Engineering and Engineering Services have been made.

Occupational Studies (Business Services QAN 600/8774/2) changed from 3210 to BA3

Occupational Studies (Construction QAN 600/8652/x) changed from TE1 to TG1

Occupational Studies (Engineering and Engineering Services QAN 600/8655/5) changed from XA1 to 9070

The discount codes will be amended on NIEFQAN and the Register by CCEA Regulation and will be included in the updated NIEFQAN file to be released in December.
