

GCSE Hospitality Specification Addendum

Exceptional Assessment Adaptations (for 2021–2022)

This addendum should be used in conjunction with the current specification

The table below shows the units available for Summer 2022 cash in and details where applicable:

- the unit eligible for omission; and
- any temporary adaptations that have been made due to public health restrictions.

Please note: This applies only to candidates who started their GCSE course in September 2020 and are cashing-in at qualification level in Summer 2022

Content	Assessment	Weightings	Assessment Adaptations 2021–2022
Unit 1: The Hospitality Industry	External written examination  1 hour  All questions are compulsory and may include multiple choice, short response, structured, stimulus response and extended response.	25%	No changes
Unit 2: Hospitality and the Customer	External written examination  1 hour  All questions are compulsory and may include multiple choice, short response, structured, stimulus response and extended response.	25%	This unit will be eligible for omission for candidates cashing in for the qualification level grade in Summer 2022.  This unit will still be available for any candidates wishing to be assessed in all units.

Unit 3: Food and Beverage Preparation and Service	Controlled assessment  Students must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>produce a portfolio of three tasks; and</li> <li>contribute to planning and carrying out an event or function.</li> </ul>	50%  (30%)  (20%)	Adaptations 1) Controlled Assessment task for Summer 2020 will be valid for Summer 2022 event or function. 2) Students will only be expected to complete two of the three tasks in the portfolio, alongside planning and delivering the function. 3) Learning outcome: “apply knowledge to plan an event or function for 10 – 20 people ” is reduced to “ 5 –10 people. ”

For those students who started their GCSE course in September 2020 and are due to cash in the full GCSE in Summer 2022 should they choose to sit all units of the GCSE, they will receive the higher of either:

- the grade awarded on the basis of the outcome of the required units specified by CCEA; or
- the grade awarded on the basis of the outcome of the full set of units for that qualification.

In both cases the full specification content should still be delivered.

For candidates starting the qualification in September 2021 it is recommended that, as far as possible, the units are delivered in numerical order in case of any further disruption to the academic year.
