Speaking 2

CONTEXT 1: IDENTITY, LIFESTYLE AND CULTURE

Social media and new technology

Introduction

Here are some key points to help you study this topic.

Learning Outcomes

You should be able to:

- communicate and interact effectively in speech for a variety of purposes;
- take part in short conversations, asking and answering questions, exchanging opinions and producing extended sequences of speech;
- speak spontaneously, responding to questions, points of view or situations and sustaining communication, as appropriate;
- express information and narrate events coherently and confidently, using and adapting language for new purposes;
- make appropriate and accurate use of a variety of vocabulary and grammatical structures;
- make creative use of the language, as appropriate, to express and justify their own thoughts and points of view; and
- use accurate pronunciation and intonation that would be understood by a native speaker.

These lists are neither prescriptive nor exhaustive.

Skills

- Communication.
- Self-Management.
- Working with Others.
- Problem Solving.
- Using ICT.

Preparation

- Familiarize yourself with the specification requirements and grade boundaries.
- Familiarize yourself with the assessment format of this component of the GCSE.
- Develop a bank of topic based vocabulary lists from CCEA core vocabulary.
- Build up a bank of phrases useful for role-play, e.g. He perdido..., ¿Me dejas...?
- Identify areas of weakness that you need to work on, e.g. pronunciation, word order.
- Write out answers to CCEA sample questions. Key areas of discussion might be:
 - Identify examples of new technology;
 - Discuss advantages and disadvantages of new technology;
 - Offer your personal preferences (what types of device?) and how you use new technology;
 - How you use social media and the internet in general;
 - The risks involved with using social media and the internet in general;
 - The role of parents and schools to prevent/deal with issues.

Practice

Role-Play (classroom and independent study activities)

- Pair-work activity. With a partner test each other on topic based vocabulary lists recording each other's scores every time in order to measure progress and identify areas of weakness.
- Practise role-play situations for this topic using SAM from CCEA.

Practice

General Conversation (classroom and independent study activities)

- Model answers. Pupils match sample answers to questions.
- Record your answers to CCEA sample questions (using Audacity software/MP3 recorders) and listen back to identify areas for improvement.
- Produce a checklist of topic based questions and practise with a partner. Tick off those you can answer. Keep practising the others until all have been ticked off.
- Group-work activity. Topic based questions numbered in a grid. Each pupil is assigned a number on a post-it and must answer the corresponding question. When done they swap their post-it with another pupil and repeat the activity.
- Group-work activity. Pupils are divided into groups and given a topic or sub-topic. They must develop as many questions and answers related to that topic as they can.
