

Finding the best way

Being
Creative

1. Think about what you would like to achieve at the end of the task.
2. How will you get there? Put your ideas down on paper.
3. Choose one and give it a go.
4. Can you draw a design or a mind map to help?
5. Remember, if the first idea doesn't work, it mustn't be the best way, so try again.

Got an idea?
Who can help to make it better?

Being
Creative

1. Do you have a good idea for this task?
2. Remember that some of the best 'Ideas People' find that explaining their idea to someone else can help to make it clearer.
3. Who do you think would be able to add to your idea?
4. Can you explain your idea to them in a clear way?
5. How could you do this?

Changing your plan

Being
Creative

1. What is getting in the way of your plan?
2. What can you do about this?
Be calm and think carefully.
3. Would it help to break the task into parts and do one part at a time?
4. Can you just change one part of your plan, or do you need to start again?
5. You might learn something new by trying out a new way!

Learning from a mistake

Being
Creative

1. Think of a mistake you have made or something that you have failed at.
2. Write it down in the middle of a page.
3. Around this, write down all the reasons why it happened.
4. Think about the reasons. What have you learned from them? Write this down.
5. What will you know to do next time so the mistake doesn't happen again?
6. See how many things you have learned from just that one mistake!
7. A mistake can turn into a chance to learn!

Finding a unique way to do something
